Trend Micro Promotion Terms and Conditions:

1. This promotion is open only to customers new to Trend Micro in the United Kingdom & Ireland who comply with these promotional terms and conditions and purchase through a Trend Micro reseller.
2. The promotion is as follows:
 - a. For New Customers

Buy one year Trend Micro Enterprise Security for Endpoints Light / Trend Micro Enterprise Security for Endpoints or Trend Micro Enterprise Security for Endpoints and Mail Servers and get two more free.
 - b. Competitive Buy Back Promotion

Where a new customer (a) is eligible for and takes advantage of the promotional offer set out in section 2(a) above; and (b) has a licence for an Internet security product from a Trend Micro competitor; then Trend Micro will give such customer additional free months on their new Trend Micro licence, corresponding to the number of months left under the competitor product licence, capped at a maximum of twelve additional months.
3. The promotional pricing is only valid for New Deals. New deals shall be defined as those deals that Trend Micro is not already aware of or involved in as of the start of this promotion.
4. The promotional pricing is only valid when licences of 250 and above are purchased.
5. The promotional pricing and related offers set out in section 2 above are only valid until 31st March 2012.
6. The set of products referenced in section 2(a) may respectively be referred to as "Qualifying Products".
7. The promotional pricing set out at section 2(a) above will only be available to new customers buying the Qualifying Products for a minimum licence term of twelve months.
8. The promotional pricing only applies as strictly set out in section 2 above.
9. The promotional pricing set out in section 2(a) can be used in conjunction with the promotions set out in section 2(b), but not with any other promotion or discounted pricing.
10. If the customer requires the functionality of Trend Micro Control Manager and/or Intrusion Defence Firewall, they will need to purchase Enterprise Security for Endpoints.
11. Trend Micro reserves the right to change the rules and/or cancel this promotion at any time and at its discretion subject to written notice on the Trend Micro Website.
